ORDER AND DISORDER: MADNESS IN PENAL NSW
with James Dunk

SAT 25 NOVEMBER 2017
2PM | FREE
MORUYA MUSEUM
Hosted by Moruya and District Historical Society

historycouncilnsw

Image credit: Sydney from Darlinghurst by Joseph Lycett c. 1818, courtesy State Library of NSW

Madness was with the Europeans who colonised New South Wales from the start: sailors, convicts, soldiers, and free men and women. Explore the strangeness of the colony through the strange ways it dealt with madness.

Book now:
http://bit.ly/MadnessSC17